

The Tadami Line running through the breathtaking natural landscapes

Water and Greenery

A journey of nostalgia and longing

Travel evokes a sense of nostalgia and sparks your imagination

This digital pamphlet is an ideal research tool for you.

Tapping an on-page icon gives you access to our homepage with detailed and relevant information. There is no need to browse the Internet—you can quickly get what you want.

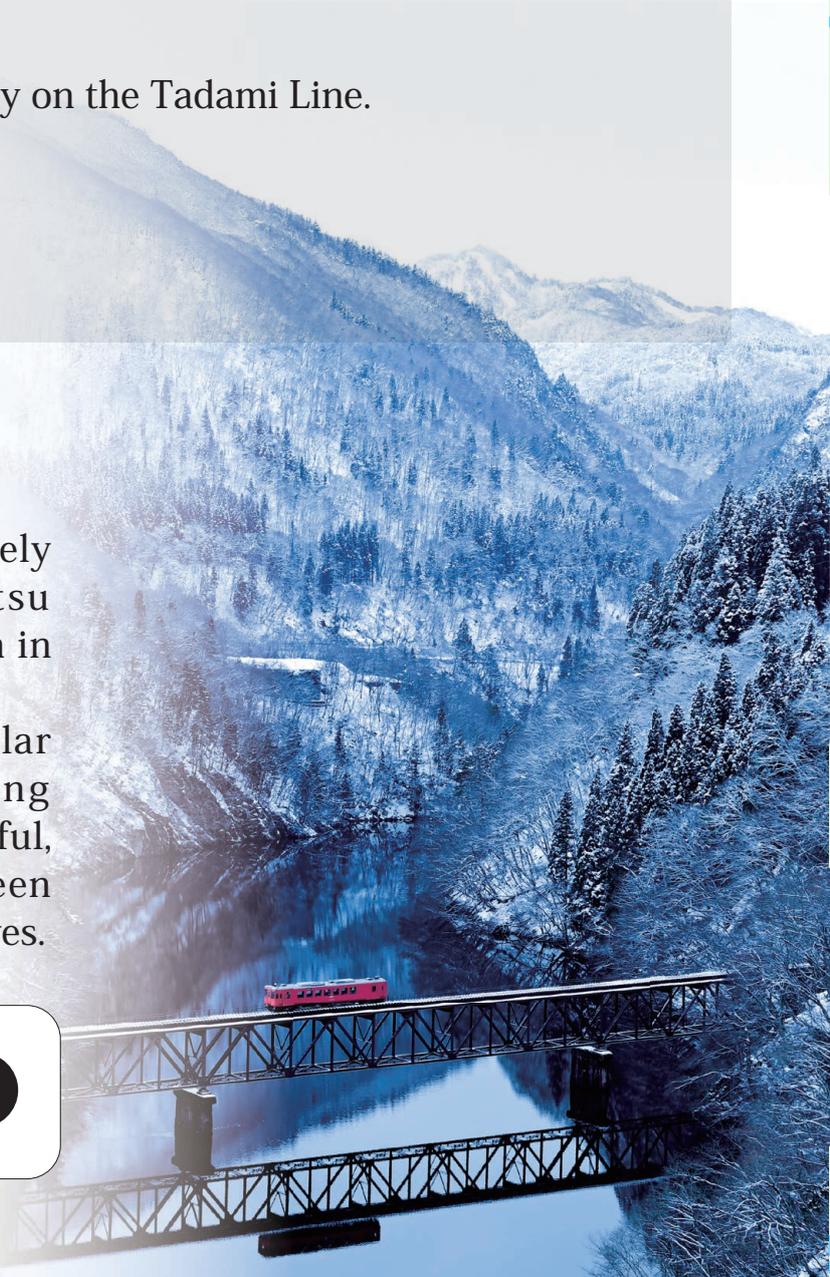

Enjoy your journey on the Tadami Line.

What is the Tadami Line?

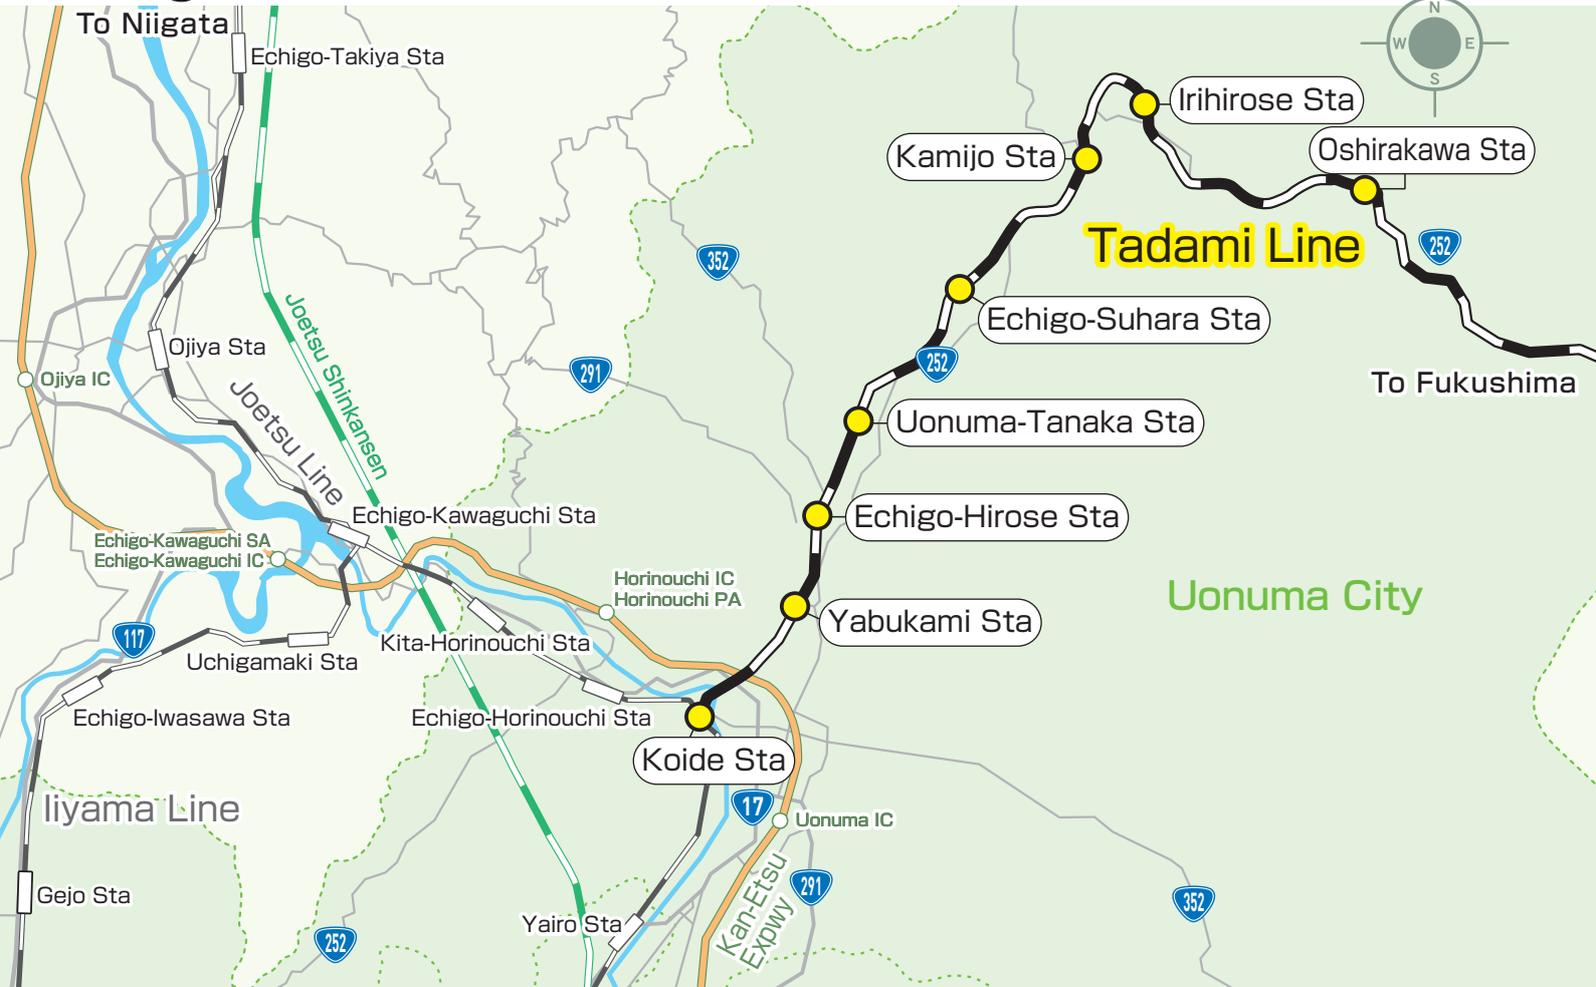

The JR Tadami line runs approximately 135km, connecting Aizu-Wakamatsu Station in Fukushima to Koide Station in Niigata.

This railway is one of the most popular lines running through breathtaking natural scenery. You can enjoy wonderful, unforgettable scenery, from lush green foliage in spring to vibrant autumn leaves.

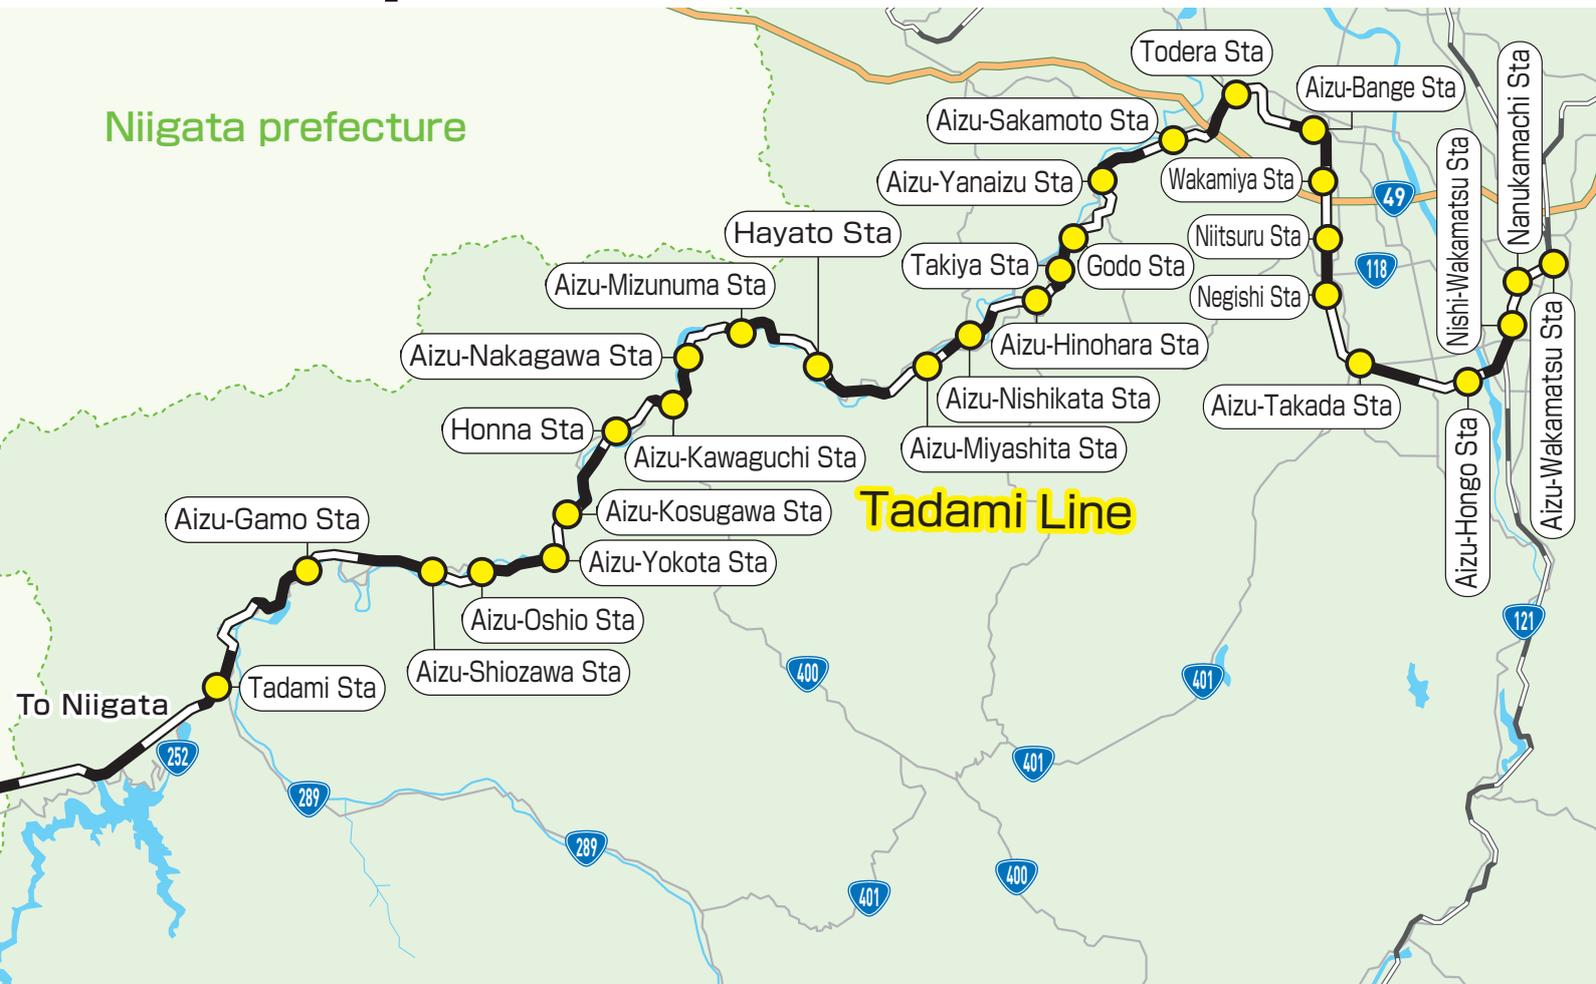

Tadami Line portal site

Niigata Prefecture

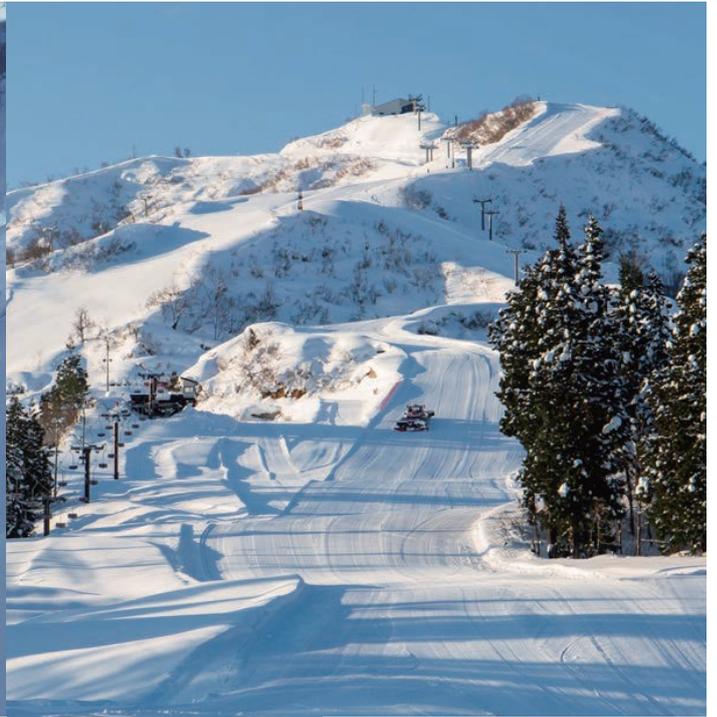

Fukushima prefecture

1 Niigata : Okutadami Maruyama Ski Resort

2 Niigata : Suhara Ski Resort

3 Fukushima : Tadami Ski Resort

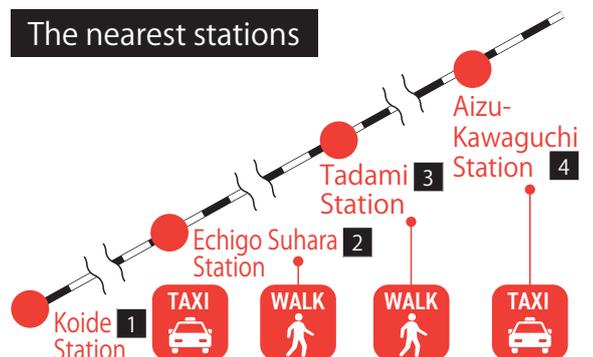

4 Fukushima : Fairy Land Kaneyama Ski Resort

Skiing

There are various ski resorts offering courses for all levels, from beginners to advanced skiers. You can enjoy winter sports throughout the long season from winter into spring.

1 Niigata : Yukiguni Uonuma Golden Cycle Route (GCR)

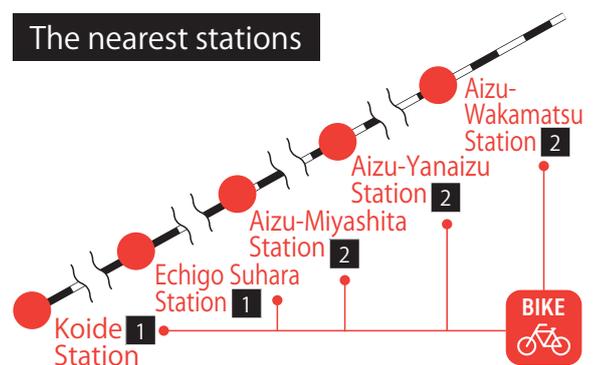

2 Fukushima : Cycling courses around Mishima-cho

Cycling

With rental bikes, you can explore the area around the station and ride along cycling paths.

The nearest stations

Niigata : "Yukiguni Retreat"

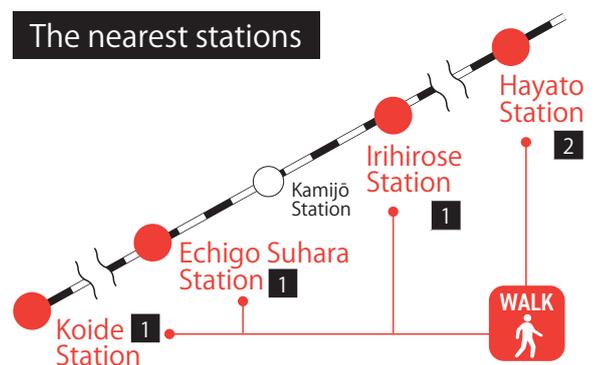

Fukushima : Mugenkyo no Watashi

Adventures

You can enjoy various activities that let you experience the area's unique natural environment.

The nearest stations

Niigata : The Fourth Hiraishi-River Bridge

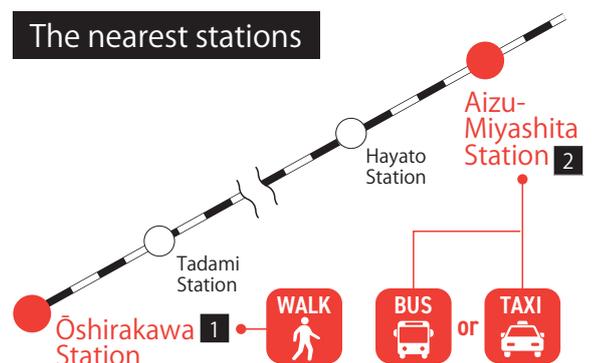

Fukushima : The First Tadami-River Bridge

Scenic viewpoints

The Tadami Line offers not only views from the train window, but also the pleasure of viewing the spectacular scenery and the Tadami Line together.

The nearest stations

1

Niigata : Takigumo (clouds like a waterfall) at Shiori Pass

2

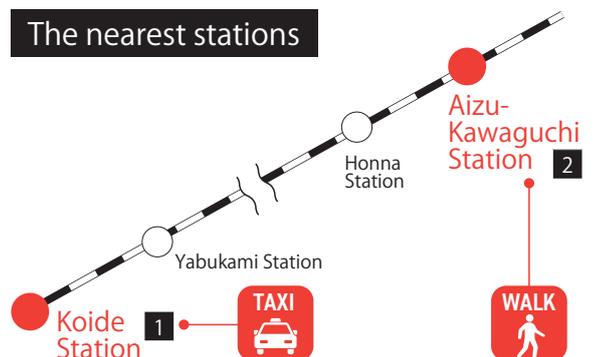

Fukushima : Kaneyama Fureai Hiroba

Scenery along the Tadami Line

You can see distinctive landscapes shaped by rich natural surroundings as well as the daily lives of local people.

The nearest stations

1 Niigata : “Setsujo-zakura (Cherry blossoms with snow)”

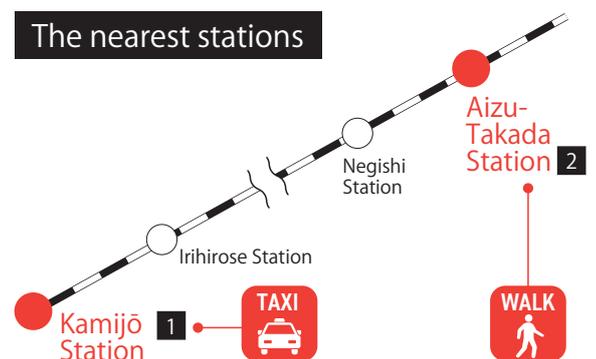

2 Fukushima : “Senbon-zakura” (1,000 cherry blossom trees) in Miyagawa

Cherry blossom trees

You can enjoy cherry blossoms with lingering snow at a well-known viewing spot.

The nearest stations

1 Niigata : International Snowball Fight in Uonuma

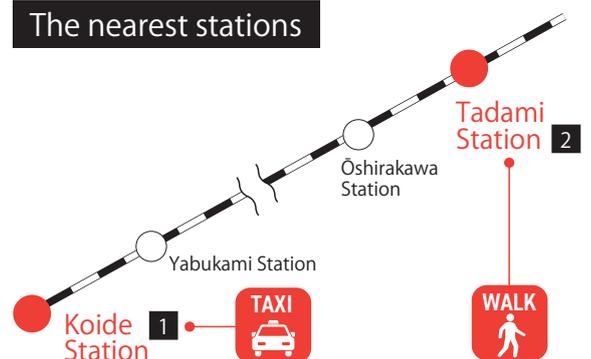

2 Fukushima : Tadami Snow Festival

Events

You can join special events held in one of the snowiest areas in Japan, which the train line runs through.

The nearest stations

Niigata : Tamagawa Sake Brewery

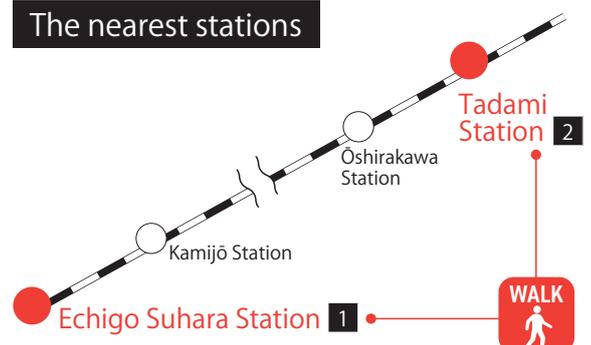

Fukushima : Doburoku (unrefined sake) by Nekka Brewery

Sake

In one of Japan's snowiest regions—recognized as a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve for its rich natural environment—sake is brewed using the unique qualities of the area. For instance, some breweries store sake in snow-cooled cellars.

The nearest stations

Niigata : Uonuma Koshihikari Rice

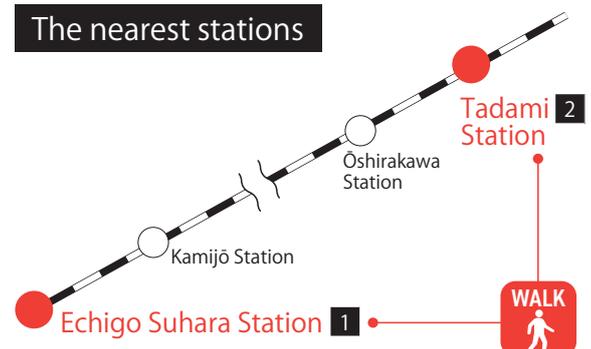

Fukushima : Nango Tomato

Agricultural products

The region's unique climate and environment—such as snow meltwater and large temperature swings between day and night—are used to grow branded agricultural products.

The nearest stations

Niigata : Soba Shop "Gentan"

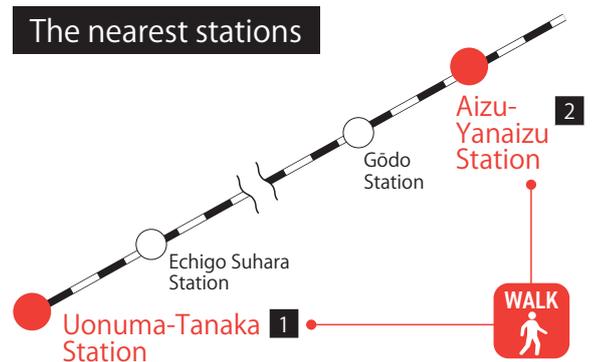

Fukushima : Aizu-Yanaizu Sauce Katsudon

Local cuisines

You can experience a rich local food culture and enjoy regional dishes shaped by diverse lifestyles.

The nearest stations

1 Niigata : Baumkuchen made with Uonuma rice flour

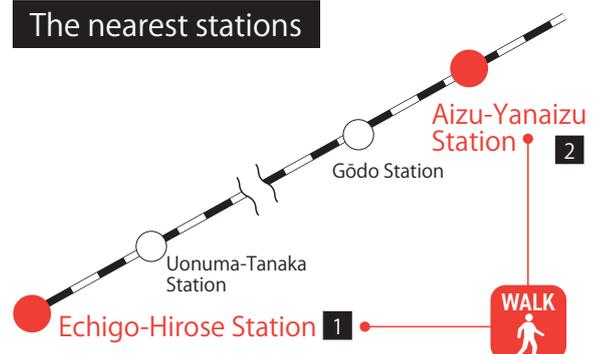

2 Fukushima : "Awa-manju (Millet bun)"

Sweets

You can enjoy a variety of traditional and modern sweets made with local ingredients.

The nearest stations

Niigata : The Meguro Residence

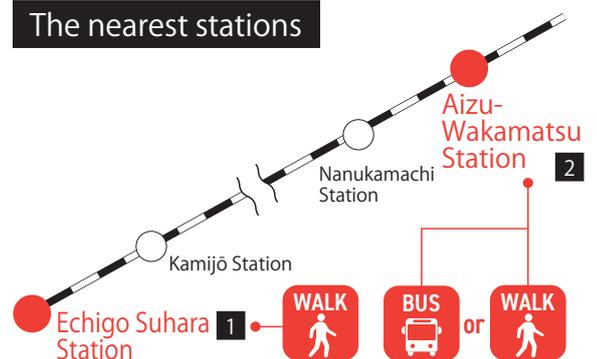

Fukushima : Tsuruga Castle

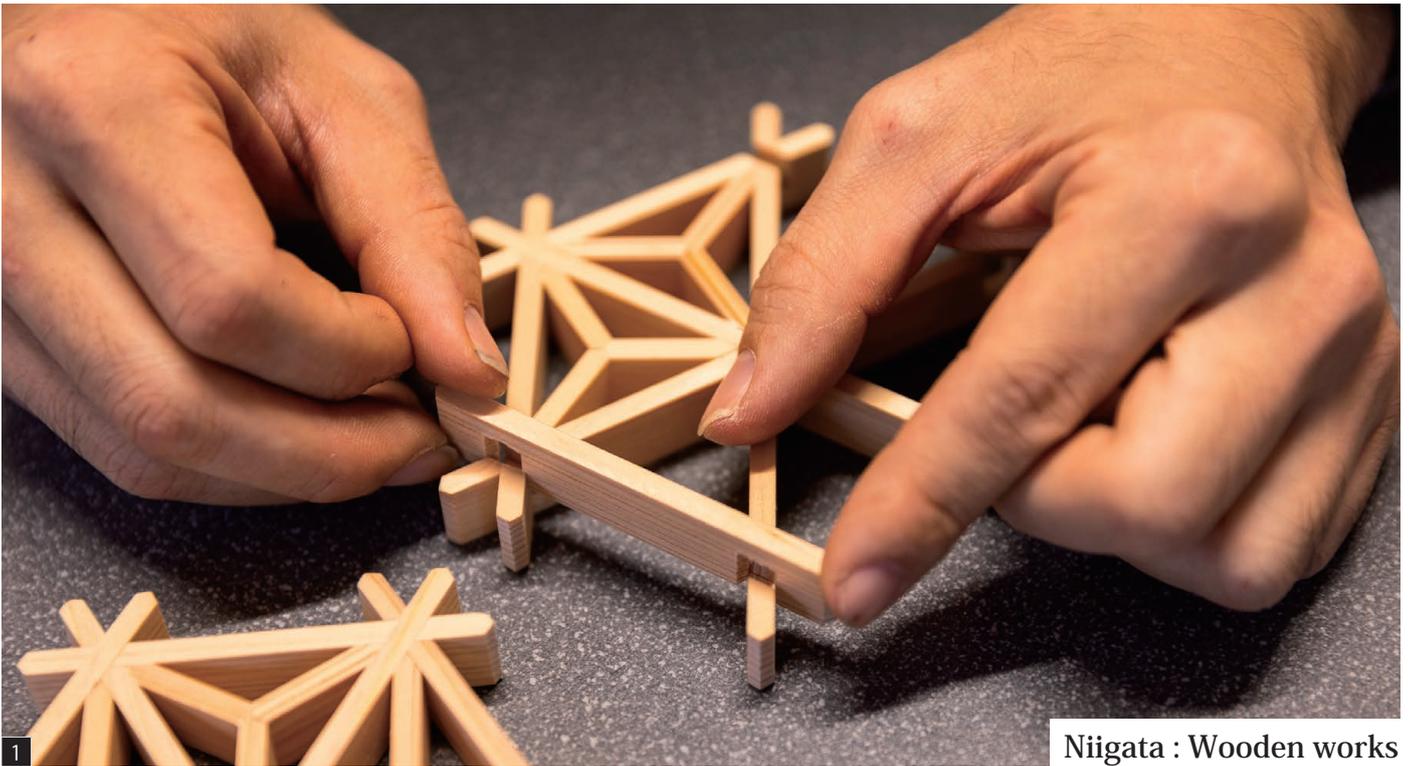

Cultural properties

You can explore various cultural assets rich in history.

The nearest stations

Niigata : Wooden works

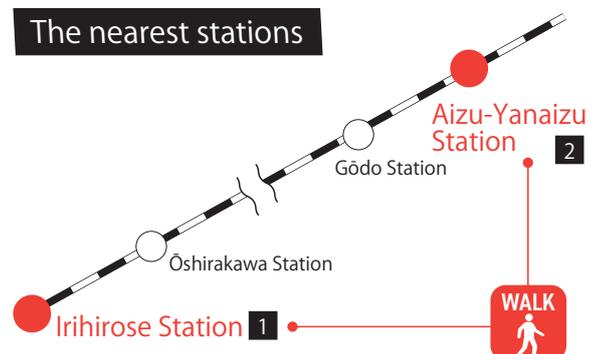

Fukushima : Akabeko

Craftworks

A variety of traditional crafts are still made using skills and techniques passed down through generations.

The nearest stations

Niigata : “Dai no saka (Bon-festival dance)” at Hachimangu

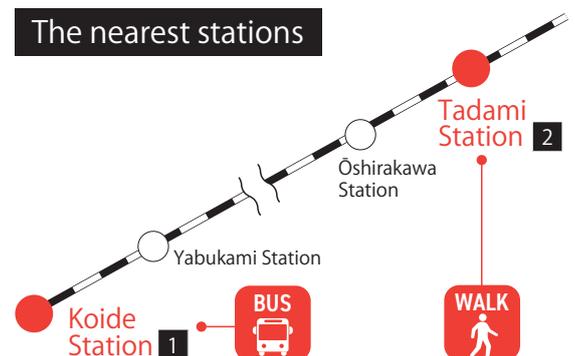

Fukushima : Mitsuishi Shrine

Shrines

The region is home to Shinto shrines with a long history and rich traditions. Visitors can participate in some of the traditional local events.

The nearest stations

Niigata : Saifukuji Temple (Kaizan-do)

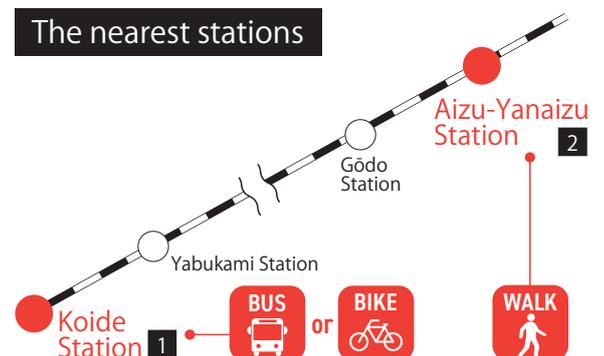

Fukushima : Enzoji Temple

Temples

This region is also home to Buddhist temples with a long history and rich traditions, where visitors can enjoy the serene temple grounds and discover valuable cultural assets.

The nearest stations

1 Niigata : Yunotani Hot Spring Area (Oyu, Oritate, and Tochiomata Onsens)

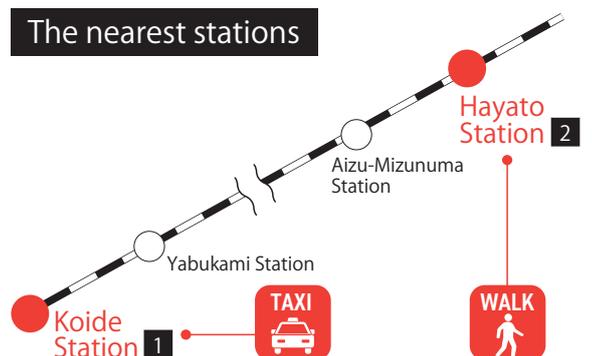

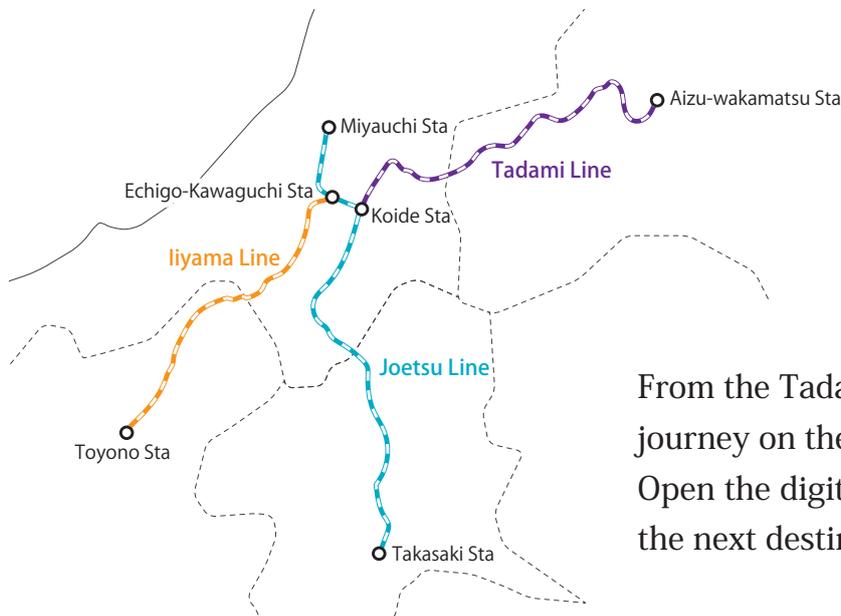

2 Fukushima : Hayato Onsen

Hot Spring Bath

The region has many hot springs, each with its own unique character, so you can enjoy trying and comparing them.

From the Tadami Line, begin a new journey on the Iiyama or Joetsu Line. Open the digital pamphlet and set out for the next destination.

The Iiyama Line

The Joetsu Line

Published by Regional Promotion Group of the Uonuma Regional Promotion Bureau, Niigata Prefecture

91-4 Ozukasinden, Uonuma City, Niigata, Japan

Designed and printed by Takizawa Printing Co., Ltd. 2-325-2 Honcho, Tōkamachi City, Niigata, Japan